

THE CHALLENGES AND SUCCESSES OF PATIENT BLOOD MANAGEMENT

Wyboston Lakes Conference Centre (Training Centre) ML44 3AL

Thursday 15th October 2015

PROGRAMME

Time	Topic	Speaker
09.30	Welcome and introduction	Dr. Jim Bamber, RTC Chair Consultant Anaesthetist, Addenbrooke's Hospital
A. GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS
9.40	Restrictive blood sampling	Dr. Nicola Jones, Consultant Anaesthetist, Papworth Hospital Clinical Sub Dean, University of Cambridge
10.00	Single unit transfusion	Ms. Megan Lawn Transfusion Practitioner King's College Hospital
10.20	TACO case studies from SHOT	Mr. Tony Davies, Patient Blood Management Practitioner, NHSBT, SHOT
10.45	Lab empowerment	Ms. Debbie Asher, Norfolk & Norwich Mr. Adrian Ebbs, Queen Elizabeth Hospital Transfusion Lab Managers, Eastern Pathology Alliance
11.05	COFFEE BREAK
B. SURGICAL PBM
11.35	Underlying causes of anaemia	Dr Martin Besser Consultant Haematologist Papworth Hospital
11.55	Consent and barriers to delivery	Dr Dora Foukaneli Consultant Haematologist NHSBT, Addenbrooke's
12.15	Extending the care pathway for iron deficient patients	Ms Joanne Hoyle Transfusion Practitioner West Suffolk Hospital
12.30	Post-operative and discharge pathways	Ms Claire Atterbury Transfusion Practitioner Queen Elizabeth Hospital
12.50	LUNCH
14.00	Assessment and pre-optimisation of the patient	Dr Fay Gilder Consultant Anaesthetist Lead Clinician for Pre-assessment Addenbrooke's Hospital
C. MEDICAL PBM
14.25	Preparing a business case for an anaemia service	Dr Kate Pendry Consultant Haematologist & Clinical Director for PBM, NHSBT
14.50	Platelets	Ms. Frances Sear, Patient Blood Management Practitioner, NHSBT
15.05	Renal anaemia and the use of erythropoietin	Dr. Mike Almond Consultant Nephrologist Southend Hospital
D. IMPLEMENTATION OF PBM
15.30	Establishment of a multi-disciplinary PBM programme	Dr. Debbie O'Hare Consultant Anaesthetist, Norfolk & Norwich Hospital
16.00	Final comments and questions	Jim Bamber