

The South West RTC

Presents

Getting positive about group O in male emergency transfusion

Friday 22nd January 10.00-12.00 via Microsoft TEAMS

An experience sharing and discussion session to support the implementation of the regional and national initiative to utilise group O RhD + units for adult male emergency transfusion.

Agenda

10.00 – 10.05 Welcome and Introductions – Sam Timmins, PBMP SW

10.05 - 10.15 Background and Introduction to NBTC initiative - Heather Clarke – TLM Derby Hospital, National O neg Steering group and NE regional representative for the NBTC National TLM Group

10.15 – 10.40 Gender in Healthcare: Implications in Blood Transfusion. Alexandra Liversidge- Advanced BMS and Lecturer, Leeds Beckett University

10.40 – 11.00 O+ emergency transfusion in adult males, what are the risks? Julie Staves- TLM, Oxford University Hospital

11.00 – 11.30 Provision of O+ red cells for emergency use across 5 sites. Nicola McVeagh, PBMP

11.30 – 11.45 Provision of O+ red cells for Male emergencies: IT and LIMS considerations. Julie Staves – TLM, Oxford University Hospital

11.45 – 12.00 Summary and Next steps – Sam Timmins PBMP SW