

“How Do You Solve A Problem Like Anaemia?”

Monday 13 July 2015

George Eliot Hospital – Nuneaton - Warwickshire

09:15 – 09:50	Registration, Coffee and Sponsor Exhibition
09:50 – 09:55 (5 minutes)	Welcome	Dr Rupin Somaiya/Antoinette Turner Consultant Anaesthetist/Transfusion Practitioner George Eliot Hospital
09:55 – 10:20 (25 minutes)	Patient Blood Management	Andrea Harris Patient Blood Management Regional Lead NHS Blood and Transplant
10:20 – 10:50 (30 minutes)	Recognition and Management of Anaemia	Dr Craig Taylor Consultant Haematologist Dudley Group of Hospitals
10:50 – 11:20 (30 minutes)	RCN Anaemia and Iron Deficiency Guidelines	Katy Cowan Patient Blood Management Practitioner NHS Blood and Transplant Member of RCN Guideline Writing Group
11:20 – 11:50	Coffee and Sponsor Exhibition
11:50 – 12:20 (30 minutes)	Lessons from Serious Hazards of Transfusion (SHOT)	Julie Ball SHOT Clinical Incidents Specialist - Serious Hazards of Transfusion, UK - NHS Blood and Transplant
12:20 – 13:00 (20 minutes)	Anaemia management: Putting it into Practice	Dr Charlie Baker Consultant Anaesthetist University Hospitals of North Midlands
13:00 – 13:30 (30 minutes)	'Singled out' A focused approach to Patient Blood Management	Angela Sherwood Transfusion Practitioner Bethia Summers Patient Blood Management Practitioner University Hospital Coventry and Warwickshire
13:30 – 14:30	Lunch and Sponsor Exhibition
14:30 – 15:00 (30 minutes)	Major Trauma Network - Case Studies	Dr Alastair Beavan Registrar - Major Trauma Service University Hospital Birmingham
15:00 – 15:25 (25 minutes)	Blood Conservation and the Hospital Liaison Committee for the Jehovah's Witnesses	Roy Jackson Birmingham Hospital Liaison Committee of Jehovah's Witnesses
15:25 – 15:45 (20 minutes)	Putting the Patient into Blood Management	Andrea Harris Patient Blood Management Regional Lead NHS Blood and Transplant
15:50	Sum up and close	Chair