

South Central Regional Transfusion Committee

Mums Babies & Blood

17 September 2014 - Regency Park Hotel Thatcham

Programme

Registration fee £20 including lunch & refreshments contact jacky.nabb@nhsbt.nhs.uk for more information and to book

9.00	Registration	Coffee and sponsors available
Chair - Jill Ablett / Tanya Hawkins Consultant Obstetrician/ Transfusion Practitioner Royal Berkshire Hospital
10.00	Welcome	Jill Ablett / Tanya Hawkins
10.10	Back to Basics: why knowing about blood testing, labelling and antibodies is important	Kerry Dowling, Senior BMS, Southampton University Hospital
10.30	Iron Deficiency Anaemia in Pregnancy; to screen or not to screen?	Rukuni Ruramayi Academic Clinical Fellow, Dept. of Public Health
11.00	Managing Anaemia with IV Iron: How it works in practice	Jill Ablett Consultant Obstetrician, Royal Berkshire Hospital
11.30	Coffee & Sponsor exhibitions
12.00	Consent / Patient Information	Reina Fisher-van Werkhoven Practice Development Midwife, Wexham Park Hospital
12.20	Lessons from the Obstetrics Surveillance System survey for management of major obstetrical bleeding.	Laura Green, Consultant in Haemostasis and Transfusion Medicine, Royal London Hospital
12.50	Serious Hazards of Transfusion (SHOT) - Incidents & Safety	Tony Davies, Patient Blood Management Practitioner, NHSBT, Manchester
13.20	Lunch & Sponsor exhibitions
	Chair – Simon Stanworth / Julie Staves Consultant Haematologist, NHSBT / Transfusion Laboratory Manager, Oxford University Hospitals
14.20	Anti D - Results of the National Comparative Audit	John Grant-Casey Programme Manager, National Comparative Audit
14.50	Anti D – Why is it important	Interactive session
15.30	Choosing not to have blood components; a Jehovah's Witness perspective	Christopher Marks Hospital Liaison Committee
15.50	Closing Remarks	