

South Central Regional Transfusion Committee

Transfusion Bites

16 November 2016 – Parkland Suite –

Regency Park Hotel Thatcham

Draft Programme

9.00	Registration	Coffee and sponsors available
Chair – Nigel Sargent, RTC Chair
10.00	Welcome	Nigel Sargent, Consultant Haematologist & Chair of the RTC, Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust
10.15	‘A stitch in time saves nine’ – learning from a serious incident	Terrie Perry and Donna Beckford Smith, Transfusion Practitioners, Buckinghamshire Hospitals Trust
10.30	‘Case study of blood transfusion in palliative care’	Rebecca Lloyd, Advanced Nurse Practitioner, Southampton Hospital
10.45	‘Decisions made to give blood components for patients who are critically ill’	Andrew Walden, Consultant Intensive Care, Royal Berkshire Hospital
11.15	‘Case study on a patient with IgA deficiency’	Gwynn Matthias, Consultant Haematologist, Queen Alexandra Hospital, Portsmouth
11.30	Coffee	Sponsor Exhibitions
	Chair – Simon Stanworth – Consultant Haematologist, NHSBT/Oxford
12.00	‘Praxbind (Reverses dabigatran)’ – Patients receiving it and their outcome	Kim East Transfusion Practitioner Frimley Health Wexham Park Hospital
12.15	‘Effect of feeding back compliance with guidelines to clinical teams’	Juliet Smith, Oxford University Hospitals
12.30	‘Transfusion for patients with liver disease: Too much of a good thing?’	Mike Desborough, Academic Clinical Fellow in Haematology and Transfusion Medicine, Oxford
13.00	Lunch & Sponsor exhibitions
	Chair – Nigel Sargent
14.00	Set up the referral of samples for RhD typing for routine Antenatals by FFDNA	Erika Rutherford – Business Development Manager, NHSBT Julie Staves, Transfusion Laboratory Manager, Oxford University Hospitals
14.30	‘Interactive Case Studies’	Kim East, Tanya Hawkins, Simon Stanworth Consultant Haematologist NHSBT, Transfusion Practitioners Frimley Park Hospital Trust & Royal Berkshire Hospital
15.15	Closing Remarks	